

CGN Power Co., Ltd.

SHAREHOLDERS COMMUNICATION POLICY

1. Purpose

This Policy is prepared with the objective of ensuring that shareholders of the Company, both individual and institutional (collectively, “Shareholders”), are provided with timely access to comprehensive, same and understandable information about the Company (including its financial performance, strategic goals and plans, material developments, governance and risk profile), in order to enable Shareholders to exercise their rights in an informed manner, and to strengthen communication between the Shareholders and the Company.

2. General Policy

The Board shall maintain an on-going dialogue with Shareholders, and will regularly review this Policy to ensure its effectiveness.

Information shall be communicated to Shareholders mainly through the Company’s periodic reports (quarterly, interim, annual reports and environmental, social and governance reports), annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings, maintaining communication with the investment market, as well as by making available all the disclosures submitted to the Shenzhen Stock Exchange (“SZSE”) and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“SEHK”) (collectively referred to as “Stock Exchanges” together with SZSE) and its corporate communications on the websites of the Company and Stock Exchanges.

Effective and timely dissemination of information to Shareholders shall be ensured at all times.

3. Avenues of Communication

3.1. Corporate Communication

“Corporate Communication” refers to any document issued or to be issued by the Company in accordance with relevant rules for the information or action of holders of any of its securities, including, but not limited to, the directors’ report and annual accounts together with a copy of the auditor’s report, the interim report, a notice of meeting, a circular and a proxy form.

Corporate Communication will be provided to Shareholders in plain language and in both English and Chinese versions to facilitate Shareholders' understanding. Shareholders have the right to choose the language (either English or Chinese) or means of receipt of the Corporate Communication (in hard copy or through electronic means). For the purposes of environmental protection, the Company encourages and recommends its Shareholders to elect the website version for receiving the Corporate Communication.

Shareholders are encouraged to provide, amongst other things, in particular, their email addresses to the Company in order to facilitate timely and effective communications.

3.2. Corporate Website

The latest announcements of the Company may be found on the Cninfo website at <http://www.cninfo.com.cn> or the HKExnews website of SEHK at www.hkexnews.hk; the A-share meeting notices of general meetings may be found on the Cninfo website, and the H-share meeting notices and circulars may be found on the HKExnews website of SEHK.

The corporate website (www.cgnp.com.cn) provides information about the Company. In addition to a dedicated "Investor Relations" section in which the quarterly, interim and annual reports, announcements and circulars of the Company are posted as soon as practicable following their release to Stock Exchanges on the websites of Stock Exchanges, relevant press releases are also made available on the website of the Company to facilitate communication between the Company and Shareholders.

3.3. Shareholders' Meetings

The Company's shareholders' meetings include annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings and represent the main platform for communication between the Company and Shareholders and participated by Shareholders.

Shareholders are encouraged to participate in general meetings or to appoint proxies to attend and vote at meetings for and on their behalf if they are unable to attend the meetings.

The A-share meeting notices and H-share meeting notices and their accompanying documents of annual general meetings will be posted on the Company's website, the Cninfo website and the HKExnews website of SEHK twenty business days (excluding the date of meeting and the date of notice) before the meeting is held, the A-share meeting notices and H-share meeting notices and their accompanying documents of extraordinary general meetings will be posted on such websites ten business days or fifteen days (excluding the date of meeting and the date of notice, whichever is longer) before the meeting is held, and the H-share meeting notices and their accompanying documents will be sent by post to Shareholders who have elected to receive printed copies of these communications.

Shareholders' meetings are held in convenient locations. All Directors, supervisors and senior management are required to make their best endeavors to attend the Company's annual general meeting. The Chairman of the Board will designate chairmen of committees under the Board (or if a committee chairman is unable to attend, another member of the committee (or if such member is unable to attend, a representative officially designated by the Chairman of the Board)), senior management members and external auditors as representatives to answer questions raised by Shareholders. The chairman of the Independent Board Committee (if any) will attend shareholders' meetings approving related party transactions or any transactions that require the approval of the independent shareholders to answer questions.

3.4. Financial and other reportings

The Company reports financial and operating results on a quarterly basis and produces quarterly, interim and annual reports in accordance with the listing rules of Stock Exchanges and other applicable laws and regulations (the "Regulatory Requirements"). Financial reports will be published on the websites of the Company and Stock Exchanges, respectively, and will be sent by post to Shareholders who have elected to receive printed copies.

From time to time, the Company communicates other information to Shareholders by way of Company announcement and/or circular, in compliance with the Regulatory Requirements or otherwise.

3.5. Investment Market Communications

In order to facilitate communication between the Company and the investment community, the Company communicates with investors and analysts from time to time through various daily communication means including results presentations, performance roadshows, reverse roadshows, research activities, analyst calls and the “Easy Interaction” platform.

In this connection, Directors and employees who have contacts with investors, analysts and media are aware of the Listing Rules, the regulatory requirements and the disclosure obligations and requirements under the Company’s “Information Disclosure Management System”.

3.6. Visits

The Company may invite investors and business stakeholders to visit its management or production sites from time to time so as to give them the opportunity to meet the local management and see the Company’s facilities. The Company will also collect the opinions of visitors about the performance of the Company during such visits and understand their expectations.

3.7. Shareholders’ enquiries

Shareholders should direct their questions about their shareholdings to the Company’s Registrar.

Shareholders and the investment community may at any time make a request for the Company’s information to the extent such information is publicly available. The contact information is as follows:
